Six great confusions still unresolved

1. At a movie theatre, which 'arm rest' is yours?
2. In the word scent, is "S" silent or "C"?
3. If people evolve from monkeys, why are monkeys still around?
4. Why is there a 'D' in fridge, but not in refrigerator?
5. Who knew what time it was when the first clock was made?
6. If pro and con are opposites, wouldn't the opposite of progress be... congress?

Earth Stains

How are you doing with your earth stains? The earth we live on and in can stain you. Remember as a young boy sliding on the grass--grass stains. The world we live in--glance at some magazines on the rack as you are standing in line at the checkout--watch out eyes--too late--porno--earth stains, Watching tv--watch out eyes, watch out ears--earth stains coming in, Girl walking down the street with inappropriate clothing--holy cow--watch out eyes--oops--earth stains. Talking with some guys at work--somebody tells off color joke--should not laugh--watch out mouth--aw nuts--earth stains. Talking politics--really getting into it--those people really get my goat--those bums should be shot--did I say that?--uh--oh--earth stains--Driving down the highway--being cut off--should not get mad--maybe he has a reason for driving like a moron--yuk--more earth stains. Etcetera, etcetera, etcetera.

I am not a kid anymore and do not slide on the grass so grass stains are not a big problem. But, I do live and walk through this world and do get covered in earth stains. All I can say is thank You Lord for Your Cleansing Blood. Thank you Heavenly Father, Son and Spirit for the knowledge of when I ask, You will wash away my earth stains with The Blood of Our Savior Jesus Christ Our Messiah.

- Why isn't a Fireman called a Water-man?
- If money doesn't grow on trees, how come Banks have Branches?
- If a Vegetarian eats vegetables, what does a Humanitarian eat?

- How do you get off a non-stop Flight?
- Why are goods sent by ship called CARGO and those sent by truck SHIPMENT?
- Why do we put cups in the dishwasher and the dishes in the Cupboard?
- Why do doctors 'practice' medicine? Are they having practice at the cost of the patients?
- Why is it called 'Rush Hour' when traffic moves at its slowest then?
- How come Noses run and Feet smell?
- Why do they call it a TV 'set' when there is only one?

Not a Holiday lets do customs

Hi everyone! I usually talk about holidays but I thought maybe if there is not one right now we should start talking about customs (boy that could go on forever)!

So I decided lets start at the beginning LIFE:

In Jewish law the soul exists prior to birth BUT life begins at birth that is when the baby is more than halfway through the birth canal. In Judaism there is no original sin (sin from Adam and Eve in the garden) so a baby is born pure, completely free of sin. A prayer is said daily that says, "Oh G-d, the soul you gave me is pure. You created it, you fashioned, you breathed it into me."

Traditionally there are not baby showers or buying of anything for the baby prior to birth, the reason is a superstition that drawing attention to the baby also brings bad luck to the baby. This is starting to change and some people are having showers, good for them, you gets lots of great stuff at showers just ask any mom!!!

Brit Milah; otherwise known as circumcision:

This commandment (Gen 17:10 and Lev 12:3) is the one that is followed by all Jews from secular to Hassidic. Most people just call it a BRIS. This covenant was originally made with Abraham and is therefore the first commandment that is specific to the Jews. A bris as stated in the bible is an outward physical sign of the covenant between G-d and the Jewish people. (as an aside circumcised males have a lower risk of certain cancers). A father is obligated to have his sons circumcised or they will have to have themselves circumcised when they become adults. The circumcision is done on the eighth day of the baby's life and is done during the day. The day the baby is born counts as day 1. The circumcision is done by a mohel, a pious man educated in Jewish Law and trained in the surgical technique used.

But you did not know that sometimes a baby boy is born without a foreskin. In that case then a pinprick of blood is taken from the tip of the penis as a symbolic circumcision.

While the bris is being done the baby is held by person known as a “sandek” (we would call that person a godfather). Also an ornate chair is set-aside for Elijah, who they say presides over all circumcision. Traditional blessings are said and a drop of wine is placed in the baby’s mouth. The baby is then given a formal Hebrew name. And of course like all special events Jewish or not the traditional ritual is followed by a festive meal. (since it is usually in the morning lots of bagels and lox).

So there are more traditions surrounding birth but it goes on and gives me more to write about another time!

Look for more info coming soon and be blessed.
