TODAY'S CREATION MOMENT VISION REVEALS GOD'S HAND

Proverbs 20:12

"The hearing ear and the seeing eye, the LORD has made both of them."

Did you know that if you stared at an object with absolutely no eye movement you would eventually go blind? Actually, it is impossible to stare at anything without some eye movement and there is a good reason for this.

You may be aware that each eyeball has a blind spot where the optic nerve is attached. Normally we don't notice it because the other eye fills in the missing portion of the image in our brain. However, there is much more than this going on to make vision possible. Suppose that you are talking with someone, nodding your head in agreement. Despite the movement, your eyes stay focused on his face. You can do that because of an organ in your ear called the vestibular sensory organ. It senses the motion of your nodding head, and sends the information to your eyes, enabling them to stay focused while your head moves.

More amazing is what you don't see. Your retina is crisscrossed with blood vessels that cast shadows into your field of vision. You just don't see them because the shadows never move. This explains why, if you were able to stare perfectly at something, you would go blind. Your brain automatically filters out perfectly nonmoving images. If it didn't, you would constantly see the web of blood vessels on your retina. So when you stare intently at something, the muscles of the eye send microscopic tremors to the eyeball making it vibrate so that you won't go blind.

The ability to see is the result of several precision-designed systems all working together to give us reliable vision. God, not chance, creates such precise integration

Prayer:

I rejoice, Lord, for You have not left my design to chance. Amen.

30th MJM SKO
At Flight 93 Memorial and Quecreek Mine
Flight 93

On Tuesday morning, September 11, 2001, the U.S. came under attack when four commercial airliners were hijacked and used to strike targets on the ground. Nearly 3,000 people tragically lost their lives. Because of the actions of the 40 passengers and crew aboard one of the planes, Flight 93, the attack on the U.S. Capitol was thwarted. With the new visitors center this is an emotional experience. This is all free to the public.

Quecreek Mine

We invite you to come visit the rescue site where you can walk right up to the rescue shaft where the miners emerged from the dark, cold mine 240 feet below after 77 hours of frigid darkness. You will be greeted by the 7 foot tall bronze statue of a coal miner at the top of the walkway into the rescue site. Hear the story of the miracle from people personally involved in the rescue. Touch the rescue capsule and try to imagine how it would feel to squeeze into it with your strength nearly gone.

This has a $7.00 fee to enter the visitors center all money is used to expand the center. The Visitors center has a film of the farmer describing the day's events from the first person that was doing surveying on his property to locate the shaft till the end when all 9 were rescued. There are also recorded voices of the miners when they hit water.

Yesterday I got stuck behind a young girl riding a horse. No matter what I did, I just couldn't get past her. I was hitting my horn, and yelling at her. She still wouldn't let me past.

There was a guy on a motorcycle behind me and he was waving too.

I was getting so wound up and frustrated. "It's people like you that cause accidents!" I shouted.

Eventually, I just couldn't take any more, so I looked around to make sure the coast was clear...

... and then I jumped off the carousel.

Take my advice — I'm not using it.

Hospitality is the art of making guests feel like they're at home when you wish they were.

Behind every great man is a woman rolling her eyes.

Ever stop to think and forget to start again?

Women spend more time wondering what men are thinking than men spend thinking.

He who laughs last thinks slowest.

Is it wrong that only one company makes the game Monopoly?

Women sometimes make fools of men, but most guys are the do-it-yourself type.

Men say women should come with an instruction manual; but since when has any man stopped to read the instructions.

I was going to give him a nasty look, but he already had one.

Change is inevitable, except from a vending machine.

I was going to wear my camouflage shirt today, but I couldn't find it.

The "Lord's Prayer" and the Mystery of Revival

Eric Tokajer (With a little editing from yours truly, gt)

In Matthew chapter six, we find one of the best-known sections of Scripture in the Brit Chadasha (New Testament). While millions are familiar with the words from this text and many repeat the words daily or weekly as a part of liturgical worship, this familiarity has also opened the door to misunderstanding. Let's look at these verses.

Jesus speaking;

Therefore, pray in this way: 'Our Father in heaven, sanctified be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. – Matt. 6:9-13

(Not sure what translation he's using, not NASB, so added the CJB also. gt)

Matthew 6:9-13 Complete Jewish Bible (CJB)

⁹You, therefore, pray like this:

'Our Father in heaven!

May your Name be kept holy.

¹⁰May your Kingdom come,

your will be done on earth as in heaven.

¹¹Give us the food we need today.

¹²Forgive us what we have done wrong,

as we too have forgiven those who have wronged us.

¹³And do not lead us into hard testing,

but keep us safe from the Evil One.

[a]For kingship, power and glory are yours forever.

Amen.'

A simple look to the introduction lets us know that while these powerful words were spoken about prayer, the context tells us that Yeshua (Jesus) was not giving the Disciples a formulated prayer, but He was providing instructions for prayer. He was not giving them a prayer to recite. He was teaching them a format or formula for their individual prayer lives.

In the verses, preceding Yeshua tells his followers not to pray like the heathen and then tells them how to pray, not what to pray. In other words, Matthew 6:9-13 isn't a liturgical prayer to recite over and again; it is an outline to be followed in order to have a powerful and effective prayer life. As we read through the words of instruction, we find instructions to honor and praise our G-D and Creator; Our Father.

We are further taught to acknowledge His Kingship and Kingdom both Heavenly and Earthly. The lesson continues by teaching us to be thankful for His provision. We are then told to forgive, and the teaching ends by reminding us that only G-D can keep us from temptation and deliver us from evil. There is amazing power in prayers who follow these instructions provided to us so clearly and simply by our Messiah. Even so, the key to revival begins with the word "Our." Notice that this word as well as the words, "us" and "we" used throughout these verses of instructions on prayer are all plural words. In other words, Yeshua's instructions for His followers on prayer teach us that our prayers must be prayed within the context of unity and community.

The power of the "L-RD's Prayer" is not in its repetition, nor is it in a person praying individually for their own needs alone. The power of these words of instruction and direction is in the unity intended to be fostered through prayer for community. The words are "My Father" or "Forgive Me" but "Our Father" and "Forgive Us." Revival will come when our prayers become patterned after His instructions and when we become unity minded.

Our Father in heaven – This phrase opens many Hebrew prayers.

. Your kingdom come, Your will be done – This is similar to the first portion of the synagogue prayer known as the Kaddish which says; magnified and sanctified be His great name throughout the world which He has created according to His will and may He establish His Kingdom in your lifetime.

evil one - In the Greek may also be translated evil in the sense of bad things that happen.

Some have "For Kingship, power and glory are Yours forever." Though perfectly fine, this part is not in the earlier manuscripts.
