Grace

After sharing with a good friend about Gods' grace upon me on my recent trip to visit my son and his family at the base of the Rocky Mountains of Colorado. God delivered me a reminder that cut to my heart.

From special times with my grandchildren, connecting with Nicholas and his wife, Cassidy including "good times" (aka a regional hamburger joint) with great adventures with my daughter, Jessica. "Good times" is a favorite motto we coined. Our visits included the Garden of the Gods, Pikes Peak and the majesty of the Rocky Mountains was always in sight including from my seat in the Buckley Air Force Base Chapel, better yet, was singing Amazing Grace. Blessings and sharing at Chapel Adult Bible Study were inspiring and opened doors for seeds to be planted and more. Time after time, I witnessed Gods grace whether to ensure an awesome vacation, intriguing bible studies (both in my quiet time and in group studies) and wonderful opportunities to serve and be a reflection of Gods' love in me.

Despite all Gods' grace upon me in my trip, coming home was so orchestrated that I am led to share. It was time to descend approaching Boston. I was starting to get nauseous when the stewardess came by and I inquired about the snack that I missed. "oh we passed them out 2 hours ago" but she promptly got me a snack which helped me overcome that sick in the stomach feeling. I needed the snack right then to get my composure together to go to the bathroom despite that we were descending since by grace I was just 4 aisles from the door. It was by grace that I made it as the pressure in my ears became like a weighted pain. Everything I could muster up to try to make my ears pop failed. The pressure in my ears was so intense, I checked for bleeding. All I could do was cup my ears with my hands and hold my head. When Jessica reserved an extra space seat, I didn't realize I would need it to have room to allow my body to twist and convulse in agony. Then finally the pain started to lessen and subsided. I have concluded being in the mountains for 2 weeks conditioned my ear drums to counter the higher pressure and coming back down to sea level was to quick a pressure change.

As I related my story to my friend, I noticed an outside water line had developed a fracture and would need my attention. Upon trying to remove the fractured joint by applying pressure to slip it off my nose let out some blood and drops stained my sleeve. Immediately, I was reminded of amazing grace that washed away my sin stains by his blood. The amazing grace that forgives my sins daily, whether we thank Him or not. I then realized that my hearing had been very close to being damaged because of how easily the weaken area of nose tissue ruptured. The bleeding stopped immediately when I stopped struggling. Totally uncharacteristic of my typical nose bleeds. Amazing grace how sweet the sound

As we follow and enjoy the fruits God places in our Kingdom of heaven on earth; hold steadfast to Jesus' blood that was shed in order to give us the power of the Holy Spirit so that we may have peace beyond human understanding, joy unspeakable and the reassurance of Gods unconditional love.

Amazing Grace HOW SWEET TO HEAR FOR A SAVED WRETCH LIKE ME.

Reflections

Then he said to them, "As you go throughout the world, proclaim the Good News to all creation. Whoever trusts and is immersed will be saved; whoever does not trust will be condemned. Mark 16:15-16 Complete Jewish Bible (CJB)

For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. Galatians 3:27 New American Standard Bible (NASB)

Now why do you delay? Get up and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on His name.' Acts 22:16 New American Standard Bible (NASB)

<<<To me baptism is like the signing of a contract, a show of faith, an outward, and inward, expression of your becoming a Christian, a believer and follower of Jesus of Nazareth the Messiah. To announce to the world your belief that Jesus was and is whom He said He was.

Whether you do the immersion (as Jesus Himself did) or some other form you are declaring your allegiance to Him, the Risen Son of God who sacrificed His body to open the door and make a way for us to stand before God the Father in His name.>>>

Yeshua, make us more like you. Make us want to imitate you in action and in deed. You went to John and had him baptize you and so we should want to do as you did and also desire to be baptized in an outward demonstration of our faith and love for you. We ask you for that strength to be able to follow your actions and in doing so display the love that is an outpouring of you. Amen.

Always looking up,
George and Robin
